EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Leader county Republicans resolved in convention that the salary law is a failure, and are disposed to give it a further trial in the hands of officers who do not need the spur of personal interest to discharge the duty for which they are paid a liberal salary, and who will collect the fees with the same fidelity that they would if such fees were going into their own pockets. They note the fact that the strongest opposition to the salary law comes from the county officers throughout the State, and do not understand the philosophy which impels them to prefer the fees, as they say these fees will not pay the present salaries. The salary law has saved this county $10,000 or $15,000 and Washoe is satisfied with it.

"The papers of the eastern part of the State say that Jewett Adams has a bad cold, and is so hoarse that he cannot speak. He is still able to sit on a stage, however, and it is said that his smile is doing great execution. That smile, like the light of the blessed sun, is shed upon all; rich and poor alike share its benign influence. The smile is copyrighted and stereotyped."

It is said that Jewett Adams has been cultivating that smile for nearly a decade and that it is his only accomplishment. After the election that smile will be forever gone, and his features will likely assume an expression not unlike the expression of Dick Deadeye in Pinafore.

Voters who think J. W. Adams would make a better Governor than Enoch Strother are mistaken. Mr. Strother is a gentleman of culture; no one can dispute his integrity; and his word is his bond. He is a friend of education and will, therefore, protect our public school system. He would be respected by all classes and will make one of the best Governors this State has ever had. What has J. W. Adams ever done for the people, or what is there about him to recommend him as the chief executive for the next four years? Can anyone tell?

The Times-Review gives the Democratic party a dig in the ribs, as follows: "Sad to say, an educated gentleman has no show with the Democracy of Elko county." He may be able to drink his cocktail, but if he does not boast of the proprietorship of a house where the fluid is to be sold, his chances for political preferment are visionary and uncertain."

R. Seiler has taken the place of Geo. M. Shepherd as the Democratic candidate for State Treasurer. Mr. Shepherd refused to enter the fight against Uncle George Tuffy. He knew it was useless, hence his withdrawal from a place as the ticket.

The Signal Service folks have hit the nail squarely on the head, so far this season. They are building big storms and evil weather generally, all over the country.

WESTERN TELEGRAMS.

A Threatened Railroad War.
SAN FRANCISCO, October 12. A Portland dispatch says: The strike on the Northern Pacific Railroad has assumed a serious phase. Yesterday after the rate of board was fixed at the old price the men demanded $2.50 per day instead of $2, as heretofore. This was refused by Hallett, Superintendent of construction. All the Chinamen were then driven from work. Hallett, it is understood, has telegraphed to Missoula for troops. Whether the commanding officer will furnish them cannot be learned. Ring leaders of the mob threatened to hang Hallett. Engineer Theilsson, with the Paymaster, started to the front this morning with a large sum and an escort of 25 soldiers. While men on the construction work, as a rule, are well disposed, there are probably 200 ex-convicts and many fugitives from justice in the crowd, to say nothing of a band of desperate followers, and there is good ground for fearing acts of violence.

Dividend and Assessment.
SAN FRANCISCO, October 12. Contention declares a dividend of 25 cents and Utah is assessed $1.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

Press Dispatches to EVENING GAZETTE.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

Cassidy and the Mormons.
NEW YORK, October 12. John Sharpe, Chairman of the People's Territorial Committee, telegraphs from Utah to the journals here declaring that the statement published in these dispatches last Tuesday, that the Mormons were using their energies and money to defeat Cassidy's election in Nevada, is emphatically untrue. Sharpe says that Mormons, prominent in business and political circles, deny all knowledge of it, but think the statement has been made in Cassidy's interest, to create sympathy for him at the expense of the Mormons. While Cassidy's defeat would be gratifying to the Mormons, and while Democratic Mormons in Nevada will vote against him, or stay away from the polls, they will use no money or other illegitimate means to defeat him. Sharpe further says that the Mormons are taking no part whatever in California politics.

The Land League.
BUFFALO, October 12. James Mooney, President of the Irish Land League of America has received the following dispatch from Dublin: "I shall advise Tuesday's conference to adopt a prudent though firm policy of upholding the original platform and the abolition of rack-renting pending the attainment of peasant propriety. I feel confident this will secure our proper maximum of progress with a minimum of oppressive coercion and meet the approval of Irishmen at home and abroad. Ireland relies on America's continued support." (Signed) PARNELL.

Civil Service Reformers Protest.
NEW YORK, October 12. The civil service reform association of Brooklyn to-night passed a resolution denouncing the interference of the Federal administration in politics in this State as contrary to the declaration in favor of civil service reform embodied in the platform of the Republican National Convention upon which present administration was elected and as utterly opposed to the spirit of our Government.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., October 12. A frightful boiler explosion in a lumber mill near Petersburg occurred yesterday and killed Jas. Stephenson, the proprietor, and James Hoehner, blowing them to pieces. Two others named Watkins and Lanier were fearfully scalded, burned and otherwise injured, and are likely to die. Another workman was very severely scalded.

The Scovilles Again.
CHICAGO, October 12. Mr. and Mrs. Scoville are besieging the courts with various bills, cross-bills, etc., against each other, and offending the public by most scandalous counter charges. Scarcely a day passes without one or the other appearing in some new place in the courts. Their bills are generally of the least possible interest and their quarrels are actively promoted by outsiders.

Striking Coopers.
CHICAGO, October 12. Coopers in the employ of different packing houses and other establishments at the stock yard and in Chicago are on a strike under orders from the Coopers' Union. Several hundred of them are out. They have been getting about $2.75 per day and demand $3. New men are taking their places.

Whisky Hung Him.
LANCASTER, Ky., October 12. Wm. Austin was hanged to-day for the murder of his aunt, Betsy Bland. He remained calm, and denied his guilt until a moment before the drop fell, when he whispered in the ear of the minister that he did the murder. Whisky was the cause, and he warned his brother against it.

Not A Great Victory.
COLUMBUS, O., 12. Official returns from the different counties are coming in very slow on account of scratching on all local tickets. As returns come in it looks as if the great sweeping victory claimed by the Democrats would dwindle down to only a small majority. Democrats are considerably surprised.

Counterfeit Dollars.
BUFFALO, October 12. A number of spurious silver dollars are in circulation in this vicinity. It is believed some of the German and Italian counterfeiters recently arrived in New York are operating here.

A Chance For Investors.
BUFFALO, October 12. The American Humane Society, in session here to-day, offered a reward of $500 for a painless brand for cattle.

A Lynching.
FORT LARAMIE, October 12. A cowboy named H. Capps murdered in cold blood Richard P. Elgin, a book-keeper for a cattle firm, and nearly killed a cowboy named Michael Regan. Capps was placed in the guard-house and will probably be lynched.

A Boomerang special from Fort Felterman says J. H. Capps last night shot and instantly killed B. R. Elgin, bookkeeper for Searight Bros., and dangerously wounded Mike Regan. The latter and a party of cowboys took Capps from custody and lynched him. This is the second lynching in this county within three months.

Hurrying to Get Out.

Stock men are the liveliest men in the country at present. The winter came upon them so early and severely that their flocks and herds at pasture in the mountains during the summer are in great danger of either freezing or starving. It is probable that many sheep will be lost in the Sierra Nevada range, particularly where they were pastured in valleys near the Summit which are now surrounded by deep snow. The winter is earlier than for several years before. In 1876 thousands of sheep and cattle perished in the snow in the mountains south of the Big Trees, where large bands are now hemmed in. If the weather moderates herders may "save their nut-ton," but if the present storm should continue many a flock will dwindle away to a few tough old bell-wethers.

The Latest Styles.

Among the latest styles may be noted the very prevalent one of taking Syrup of Figs instead of castor oil, pills, salts, and the other bitter and nauseous remedies of former times. It is a very decided improvement, as anyone may learn by getting a bottle. For sale by all druggists.

PROBABLE SUICIDE.

Joseph Clow Found Dead in His Bed at Becker's Saloon.

Last evening at 7 o'clock John Wulff, barkeeper at Charley Becker's saloon, on Commercial Row, went up stairs to awaken Joe Clow, who had retired to his room over the saloon yesterday morning about 9 o'clock. After rapping at the door several times and getting no answer, Wulff climbed up and looking below over the transom, saw Clow on the bed lying face downward. He climbed over the transom and discovered that Clow was dead. Wulff immediately notified undertaker Sanders, who with the assistance of Coroner Dickens removed the remains to the Morgue. Upon searching the room Wulff found several pieces of wrapping paper under the bed, together with a cork. One of the pieces was marked "strychnine." He also found a small bottle behind the wash-board on the stand about half full of the deadly drug. The supposition is that Clow committed suicide. He came to the town about the first of the month and since that time he has been drinking quite hard. He was an industrious man and usually temperate in all his habits. He worked for Barney Clow for 7 or 8 years, but is no relative whatever. Clow has been employed for several months past on the Bidleman ranch at Clark's station. No reason can be assigned for his rash act. Deceased was about 50 years of age and unmarried. He has a brother living at Eureka.

Superintendent of Schools.

Prof. Howe, principal of the Carson public schools, writes the following letter to Prof. Carr, principal of the school here:

CARSON CITY, NEVADA, }
October 9, 1888. }

PROF. CARR, Reno.—Dear Sir: The enclosed document will explain itself, I think. It has been asserted that the teachers of the State are not inclined to endorse Prof. Young for the position of State Superintendent of Public Schools. I think the assertion not true. The enclosed paper if circulated among the teachers of the State will solve the question. Will you have the kindness to obtain the signatures of such of your assistants as are willing to sign it. Respectfully, H. H. HOWE.

Prof. Howe is determined to know what the teachers in Nevada think of the Republican nominee, and is circulating the following for signature. It has been signed by nearly all the teachers in Western Nevada:

We, the undersigned, teachers in the public schools of the State of Nevada, believe that our Republican State Convention made a wise choice in selecting Prof. C. S. Young as its nominee for the position of State Superintendent of Public Instruction. We gladly endorse the nominee of said Convention, and pledge ourselves to exert whatever influence we may have to secure his election. H. H. Howe, Kate Hodgkinson, Kate Bordenwiper, Belle Ryan, Grace A. Dowdell, Annie H. Martin, Bertha Wagner, Ella Starling, Alice M. Wilsey, Lou A. Spencer, E. J. Brown, Jennie Payne, E. J. Knowlton, S. H. Wilson, Elmer McArthur, Ella C. McNeely, Nelson Carr, H. M. Scoville.

Lovelocks Matters.

Threshing is going on at Lovelocks. The crops have been fine. John Hills got two tons of barley to the acre and a fine lot of wheat. It is estimated that nearly 3,000 tons of wheat and barley will be threshed on the meadows and that 6,000 tons of hay have been cut, all alfalfa. It is being held at $6 per ton. Cattle are being driven in to eat it. Pete French is out trying to buy now. The hog crop promises to become important. Beside Emmons' big herds of Bastian, an old Washoe man, has over 150 head, John Hills 100, John Reed over 50, John Harrison 200, and all the ranches enough to eat up the waste. Mr. Bastian is trying the experiment of raising mangle wortzel beets for hog and cattle feed. They grow to great size.

The nickel mines are opening out well. There are eight or ten men at work there and the deposit is large and rich. There is a man out from New York to buy them. Some think he is one of Edison's men.

Cattle in South-Eastern Oregon.

The Canyon City News has this to say about cattle in southeastern Oregon, from which locality many thousands and beaver are driven annually for shipment to San Francisco: "About two years ago it was discovered that the business of raising cattle was at an end in Grant county. The grass was all gone and the cattle would starve. This Spring everyone who had any cattle, sold them to be driven to the East—or at least such has been the common report. Well, the Assessor has finished his labors for the season, and he reports that there are just 1239 head of cattle less in the county now than there were one year ago. Probably the owners of cattle are anxious to reduce the debt of the county, and so report five or six times as many as they really possess."

THE SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY.

How it Was Celebrated at The Seminary Last Evening.

Those who attended the entertainment at the seminary last evening will never pass a more enjoyable hour and a half. The occasion was the celebration of the seventh anniversary of the opening of Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls. An instrumental duet, by performers behind the curtain, opened the entertainment, and was well rendered. The pantomime "The Fate of Mary Jane" showed careful study, and concluded just in time to save the death by laughter of a majority of the audience. The charade was good and the young ladies taking part in it may be congratulated on the fact that their acting has been seldom surpassed by some professional actors. A vocal polka came very near setting the audience to dancing, and Miss Cara and Dick Jose sang a duet in such a manner as to receive an encore, in response to which they sang another fully as well as the first. "The Peak Sisters, from Peekskill, Pekin, Pike's Peak, etc.," gave a very humorous representation of seven very decorous damsels on a concert tour. Too much cannot be said in praise of Miss Reed's reading. She has few if any superiors in that art. As a whole, the entertainment went far towards proving the oft-repeated assertion of the GAZETTE that as a place for educating the girls of Nevada there is no better on the coast than Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls.

"The Leopard Changing His Spots."

EDITOR GAZETTE:—The above is the caption of a brief paragraph appearing in the Carson Morning Appeal of the 11th inst. Permit me to say that not until the comet falls headlong in to the sun, and this "dusty ball" is knocked into smithereens—not until white is black and vice becomes virtue will "General Kittrell renounce Democratic principles." He was born a Democrat, and when he is dead a Democrat is gone, and don't you forget it! Had he ever felt the slightest inclination to "flip" the recent glorious news from Ohio would have flopped him back into the Democratic fold, though he had been as dead as an antediluvian mackerel. When he quits the grand old party whose acts and deeds constitute the glory of the Republic, you may expect a "wreck of matter and a crash of worlds." With the Democratic party he expects to live, and in its faith he expects to die! In the campaign he stands by and will support every nominee of his party both on the State and county tickets, and don't you forget it.
